65-67 Commercial Street, EH6 6LH

Venue Description

Custom House is an A-listed Georgian building constructed between 1810-1812. Custom Houses were built in major ports for the payments of dues on goods traded. Leith's Custom House is the oldest in Scotland. Custom House provides a large flexible space, including an outside courtyard, which lends itself well to a variety of uses. From private functions to theatre performances.

What makes this venue special?

Custom House is a beautiful venue situated in the heart of Leith. It is a large, variable space in a unique, historically significant setting.
